

We are learning to:

use verbal and visual features to communicate our story through a movie identify and describe the effects of and links between verbal and visual features

We'll know we have achieved this when we have:

created a storyboard which includes verbal features eg silence, sound effects, script identified and described the effects of and links between verbal and visual features created a movie which communicates a message and is shown on Pukeko Echo, Channel North TV